GENERAL INFORMATION: The incumbent will report to loan Baja

The purpose of the position is to serve as an electronics engineer performing a wide range of professional engineering studies and assignments.

MAJOR DUTIES:

As an electronics engineer, independently performs atypical or highly difficult professional engineering studies and assignments within the subject-matter or functional area assigned, e.g., unusual problems that arise during the rework of major systems for which the employee has technical responsibility. Assignments are often characterized by conflicting issues, and the employee must comprehend fully the relationships between assignments and related areas and branches of engineering. Assignments are frequently further complicated by the many operations which the equipment or systems must perform and the many variables which must be considered. Performs preliminary engineering analyses on large and complicated projects, incorporating knowledge of research and development activities and technological advances. Thoroughly evaluates the various alternatives for meeting the objectives of the assignment, considering peripheral as well as technical factors in recommending the best. When planning large systems or complexes, conceives several configurations, i.e., develops and compares alternative layouts or designs which use equipment of various kinds and capabilities in diverse physical arrangements. Coordinates with related groups and integrates many design changes or major equipment alterations. Develops or adapts approaches and procedures which are followed by less experienced engineers on subsequent assignments of a similar nature. When required, coordinates and directs the work of other engineers and technicians who are assigned to accomplish portions of broad tasks. Uses computer technology in the performance of assigned engineering work.

HOW TO APPLY: Complete a brief memorandum of interest giving a description of your relevant experience and reasons for applying for this detail. Submit your memorandum, along with the completed supervisory acknowledgment statement below by close of business on 7/2/2025 to: IXBaja@bpa.gov. Do NOT submit a resume.
