

BPA Energy Efficiency Weekly Announcements

November 14, 2024

New

Seeking Nominees for Utility Sounding Board

BPA is seeking nominees to serve on the Utility Sounding Board (USB) to fill the positions of three members beginning in January 2025. The USB is a consultative body that provides recommendations to BPA on policy, programs, infrastructure development and the execution of BPA's Energy Efficiency program. It also offers members the opportunity to learn from and share best practices with their utility peers...More

General

New Spanish Language Resources Available

BPA's Comfort Ready Home Program has a growing number of Spanish language resources available for utilities, contractors, and homeowners. New resources include eLearning modules, videos, and the Comfort Ready Home Field Guide in Spanish. Learn more about the available content here.

