

Big Eddy Add Bank 5 Spare Transformer

This project replaces a system spare used in emergency response. It supports the two 500/230kV transformer banks at Big Eddy in the event of the failure of one phase. Without the spare in place a failure of one phase on either bank results in an extended bank outage and potential transmission system derate/outage impacting flows.